

The people's A-Z of WA

Your picks of the places and experiences that are truly WA.

Kleenheat

We all know west is best.

The great weather and endless beaches, the unique wildlife and diverse countryside – there’s so much to see and do across our beautiful home state.

But which local places and experiences are truly WA?

As the local name in gas, we asked other Western Australians to tell us what they consider to be the best bits about living where we live.

This is the people’s A to Z of WA.

A

Augusta, (but shh, don't tell everyone).

Tranquil, serene, scenic, bush, beach, breathtaking and uninterrupted views. Seriously, a place of beauty.

Submitted by Deb F of Withers

B

The Bibbulmun Track is one of the world's best planned and maintained hiking trails, winding its way 1,003km from Kalamunda to Albany.

What would be a five-hour drive can take the average hiker eight weeks to complete – overnighting through 49 shelters and in nine track towns.

Submitted by Arthur W of Mount Lawley

C

Crayfishing. You can't live in this wonderful state without experiencing the thrill of pulling up craypots in the hope of the elusive 'catch of a lifetime'.

Fresh cray for dinner – nothing better.

Submitted by Jackson D of Duncraig

Local's tip
Feeling hungry?
Our blog has plenty of seafood recipes from the Kleenheat Kitchen.

D

Dampier means camping, being woken by the morning sun, taking the boat out for a day of fishing or island hopping, often having the entire island to yourself.

Submitted by Serene O of Brentwood

E

Exmouth is a truly beautiful and calm place that makes me feel relaxed and comfortable.

The weather's always beautiful and the beaches and marine life never fail to amaze everyone who comes there.

Submitted by Tully J of Hilton

F

Fringe World. Every year, Northbridge and other locations around Perth become a hub of creativity and good vibes.

Seeing families in the heart of Northbridge, mixing with people of all ages, celebrating the arts and indulging in life is a great showcase for how good life can be when we celebrate as a community.

Submitted by Andrew M of Karrinyup

G

Geraldton wax, which in spring blooms gloriously everywhere, signals the cold weather is coming to an end and summer's just around the corner!

Submitted by Shaani R of Bertram

Local's tip
Visit our blog for tips on bringing native Aussie flavours into your garden.

H

Home. As an immigrant, it's a privilege to call WA home. Coming from a third world country with almost no means or opportunity, I feel like I've now made it with our own home and a baby on his way. All is good in WA :)

Submitted by Rajeev S or Redcliffe

I

The Indiana Teahouse at Cottesloe Beach is truly famous WA structure that sits proudly overlooking the Indian Ocean, where so many locals flock to enjoy the sun, sand and surf.

Kleenheat staff pick

J

Jurien Bay is great for ocean swimming, desert and bush exploring and, of course, the Pinnacles.

Submitted by Belinda B of Ballajura

K

Kalbarri is an amazing place of serenity and relaxation. The skywalk and national park attractions are an absolute must in WA, plus you get the bonus treat of coastline views.

Submitted by Steven L of Ellenbrook

L

Ledge Point. This sleepy fisherman's village just 1.5hrs north of Perth offers never ending coastline to keep you entertained.

I've visited with family since I was a kid, and some of my favourite WA memories were made fishing, exploring nature and making memories with the people I love.

Submitted by Jacinta B of Joondanna

M

Margaret River. We love visiting the small businesses along the main strip whether going out for dinner or getting a coffee. The locals are so friendly and it's a pleasure visiting and getting to know them.

Submitted by Skye G of Piara Waters

N

The numbat is the mammal emblem of WA and seriously cute. As one of the few mammals active during the daytime, they can eat up to 20,000 termites a day.

Unfortunately, the numbat is on the endangered list mainly due to feral cats and foxes – so let's look after them!

Submitted by Kylie T of Landsdale

O

Orchids. The range of colours, shape and diversity of terrain that these beautiful flowers occupy in WA is impressive.

They give endless hours of fun hunting, identifying and studying these spectacular plants.

Submitted by Heather B of West Busselton

Local's tip
Visit our blog for blooming good advice
on setting your garden
up for success.

P

Perth Stadium. A celebration of our indigenous history combined with state of the art modern amenities, this venue represents the changing attitudes and culture of Western Australians and the world.

Submitted by Jay P of Morley

Q

Quobba is just 25km from Carnarvon, with a coastline offering amazing snorkelling and fishing.

It's where you'll experience the famous blow holes, while local wildlife roams its campsites. Quobba is one of WA's truly special experiences.

Submitted by Misty C of Erskine

R

Road trips. Nothing's better than loading the kids into the car with the camping gear and hitting the open road to somewhere remote.

WA has so many great towns to discover, so get out and explore the state by road!

Submitted by Trent W of Clarkson

S

Our iconic Swan River is not only representative of our indigenous heritage and the life it brings to the city, but personally it also holds so many wonderful memories from my childhood through to adulthood.

Whether it's spending hours walking bridge to bridge with friends or attending the Skyworks on Australia Day, WA loves celebrating life around our beautiful river!

Submitted by Belinda J of Thornlie

T

Telethon unites everyone living in Western Australia. We come together to raise money that helps save and improve lives through research and equipment aiding kids all over Australia and the world.

Submitted by Stan Z of High Wycombe

U

Once upon a time, Useless Loop was a white salt mountain offering some of the world's purest salt.

Today, there's no public access but a 4WD will get you close – or you can see it from a scenic flight over Shark Bay.

Kleenheat staff pick

V

Denmark's Valley of the Giants, the towering canopy in WA's majestic Great Southern Forest, is a reminder to ensure old growth forests are protected for generations ahead.

Submitted by Megan T of Cowaramup

W

Whale watching in Geographe Bay.

Whether you're out on a tour in the beautiful waters or taking the Cape Naturalist Whale Trail to the lookout to watch these magnificent mammals, we count ourselves blessed to see them on their migration from such a beautiful location.

Submitted by Rochelle J of Hamel

X

Xanthorrhoea (or grass trees) are a stunning architectural native.

They're a resilient plant that will grow in WA's poor soil, laughs in the face of bushfires, is part of Aboriginal culture and truly Australian. I love them.

Submitted by Vanessa W of Carey Park

Y

York is close enough for a short stay, but also feels a world away from the city. I love the canola fields of bright yellow with the backdrop of lush green grass.

There's so much to see and do in this town immersed in history, with the charm of old buildings and friendly locals making it hard to leave after a break away.

Submitted by Rebecca L of Gosnells

Z

I love the Z Bend lookout in Kalbarri. The river trail takes you to the most amazing scenery and there's never anyone else there!

Submitted by Paul G of Manning

Local people, local support, local value. That's truly WA.

Everyone loves that local feeling – the people, places and experiences that make WA a truly great place to call home.

Being a WA born and bred company means we're here to support our home state with real ongoing value and reliable local support.

Choose local, choose Kleenheat.

Kleenheat

kleenheat.com.au
13 21 80

