1 Helpful contacts

Here are the phone numbers to call if you have an enquiry, need to report a fault, leak or emergency, or require assistance with a speech or hearing impairment or an interpreter service.

On our website, you can log into My Account and view your billing history, or use the live chat to speak to a member of our Customer Service Team.

2 Your Kleenheat account number

Your account number is specific to your natural gas account. We'll ask you to quote your account number when you contact us. You'll have a different account number for each property you have with Kleenheat.

3 Payment due by

The date your bill is due. This is also the date your payment will be withdrawn if paying by direct debit.

4 Your account balance

Previous balance: The total amount owed on your last bill.

Payments/Adjustments: The total payments/adjustments made on your account during the period covered by the bill. You can view a breakdown of the payments/adjustments on the second page of your bill [7].

Outstanding balance: The difference between your previous balance and your payments/adjustments.

New charges: The total charges for the period covered by the bill. A breakdown of your new charges is shown on the second page of your bill [9].

Total: The balance of your account. This is the sum of your outstanding balance and new charges. If you have a CR next to your total amount, your account is in credit and no payment is required for this bill.

5 Your gas usage trends

The graph shows your total gas usage for the period covered by this bill, the previous bill and the bill for the same period last year.

In this section of your bill, you can also see the plan you are on and a summary of your average daily gas consumption and average daily cost of gas for the period covered by the bill.

6 How to pay

The different ways you can pay this bill. If you pay by direct debit you'll see this reflected on your bill here. Your direct debit payment will be taken on the payment due date shown at [3]. If the total balance on this bill is in credit (CR), payment is not required and these payment options will not be shown.
